BACKCOUNTRY HORSEMEN

OF CALIFORNIA

Concerned Men and Women Dedicated to Gentle Use of California Trails and Backcountry

Presidents Message

We are not just fair weather riders as shown by the great turn out for our memorial ride. Rain off and on throughout the weekend did not deter approximately 25 riders from braving the elements to participate in this years ride.

Don't forget the election meeting Oct 18. Must have reservation e-mailed to kaminskiclan@gmail.com by Mon Oct 17, to insure your pizza. We will also be privledged to have Paul Barile to present a travelogue on his high country pack trips.

If you would like to sign up to host at Big Meadows in 2023 just let Jim Knabke know. His e-mail is jjknabke@comcast.net. Remember as host you are guaranteed two corrals and a camp spot. Thanks to those who continue to support the Big Meadows camp, we could not continue without your support.

It is not to early to start thinking about our Christmas dinner. Once again we will be honored to have the Gilley Girls with their wonderful music. This year the board has decided to have our dinner catered taking the burden off of our unit. As a result of this decision and rising prices we felt it necessary to raise the ticket price to $35.00. Our hope is this will not deter anyone from participating as this will be a wonderful event.

Reservations to Jim or Debby Dixon see flyer for details.

Our calendar is available both on our website and in our newsletter. Keep an eye on the calendar and hope to see you at one of the events. Thanks to all who continue to participate and those of you who continue to be part of our unit. Don't forget, if you would like to sponsor a ride we would be glad to have your input.

Remember to stay in the saddle. The ground is hard.

President

Easy Vegetable Soup

This easy vegetable soup recipe is simple and satisfying! It's a veggie-loaded homemade spin on canned soup that's infinitely tastier.

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 medium yellow onion
- 1 red bell pepper
- 2 celery ribs
- 3 medium carrots
- 3 garlic cloves
- ¼ cup olive oil
- 1 tablespoon garlic powder
- 2 teaspoons dried basil
- 1 teaspoon each dried oregano and dried thyme
- ½ teaspoon ground turmeric
- 8 cups (2 quarts) vegetable broth
- 1 1/2 to 2 teaspoons kosher salt, to taste
- Fresh ground black pepper
- 1 ½ cups frozen green beans
- 15-ounce can white beans (cannellini, Great Northern or other), drained and rinsed
- 1 ½ cups frozen peas
- 5 ounces pasta spirals (about 2 cups dry)

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Dice the onion. Dice the bell pepper. Thinly slice the celery. Peel and thinly slice the carrot into rounds. Mince the garlic.
2. In a Dutch oven, heat the olive oil over medium heat. Add the onion, bell pepper, celery, carrots, and garlic, and sauté for 5 to 7 minutes until the onion is translucent.
3. Add the garlic powder, dried basil, oregano, thyme, and turmeric and stir. Continue cooking for about 1 minute.
4. Add the vegetable broth, 1 ½ teaspoons kosher salt, frozen green beans, drained and rinsed white beans, and fresh ground pepper. Bring a simmer.
5. Add the frozen peas and pasta and continue simmering until the pasta is cooked, about 10 minutes. Remove from the heat and allow to cool for several minutes. Taste and add the additional salt as necessary.

Peek A Boo Ride

Bryce Canyon National Park Utah

Well there are many great trails to ride around Bryce Valley Ranch RV and Horse Park probably one of the most spectacular is the Peek A Boo Trail located in the Bryce Canyon National Park. It is only 30 minute trailer ride from the horse park. You must enter into the park and you just have reservations to do the trail. Due to some problems with private stock and the company that takes people on the trail with their stock. Private stock can only enter on the trail after 5:30 pm. We had one of the last daytime reservations on a Sunday at 12:30 But after some consideration we decided to not use our reservations and made arrangements to ride with the company that takes you on the trail. It was a great decision. Teegan our wrangler was a great guide and very knowledgeable about the canyon. We highly recommend taking their ride. You can always return later and ride your own animal. When visiting this area this is one of the rides that is a must. Due to the scenery I created a video that you can watch. It is located on our web page bchcsjsu.org. Here is the link. Videos - BCHCSJSU It is fairly long but well worth your time. Hope you enjoy the video.

2022 Annual Memorial Ride

September 10th was our annual ride in memoriam of all our backcountry horsemen members who we have lost since the establishment of the SJSU unit. Many were strong contributors by working on trails, helping put together rides and gatherings, cooking up delicious meals, representing our unit in meetings as board members, organizers for special events and the list goes on. Initially the ride started in memoriam of Diana Sorenson who loved our unit and our rides and had a joy for the outdoors and equine life. However, all members who supported us by being actively involved or by continued financial support with their dedicated membership have been greatly appreciated and we hold these members dear to our hearts and memories.

This year the ride was held at our Big Meadows Horse Camp in Sequoia National Forest. Joe and Carol cooked up a great lunch and because it was a chilly, drizzly day, there was nice a fire in the pit to cozy up to. It was especially inviting since the shock of leaving 110 degree weather for the mountains left our cold bodies shivering!

Some of us started to ride out on the trail with a heavy mist, only to return rather drenched from a thunder storm halfway through. It was, however, exhilarating since there is nothing like a mountain storm to excite the senses! All the equines seemed to endure it as well.

We had about 25+ people riding and/or visiting, and several had been camping for a few days. Two members had to leave early due to a horse injury but fortunately the horse will be fine after rest, meds and TLC.

The grand finale was our longtime member Linda Fitzgerald winning the SJSU memorial buckle for 2022! Congratulations Linda!!!

Until next year, remember, Big Meadows is a treasured gem. It is an awesome place to ride with a great variety of trails for all comfort and skill levels. It's a fun place to camp with sturdy pipe corrals and our unit maintains the cleanest bathroom this side of the Mississippi! This camp was built by the San Joaquin-Sierra unit with help of the High Sierra Backcountry unit years ago, and, with financial donations, these funds keep this camp open and available for all equestrians to enjoy year after year through our agreement with the US Forest Service.

Hope to see you there next year!

In Memoriam: Mark Nelson

A few days ago I accidentally used an old email list to send out information regarding riding in the Caruthers Fair parade. Because of that mistake, I heard from a friend whom many of you long time members have known for years. Alice Nelson contacted me with some very sad news. Back in 2018 Mark and Alice Nelson and John and Veronica

Lewis, John and I had dinner to celebrate Mark's retirement from Sun-Maid after 40 dedicated years of service. He and Alice were thrilled to have purchased a brand new home in Chino Valley, Arizona to start their new life. As many of you know, Mark was instrumental in building and maintaining the pipe corals in Big Meadows. Every year he would arrive with helpers and lots of equipment to repair corrals from winter damage.

Mark had the most youthful, joyful smile and touched many lives. John and I were shocked and saddened to receive this tragic news. He will be greatly missed. Jan Mikkelson (you may email me if you are wanting Alice's contact information).

Mark Steven Nelson, 62, passed away September 14, 2021 in Prescott, AZ. He was born January 24, 1959 in Bellflower, CA and raised on the family farm in Selma, CA, and graduated from Selma High in 1977. He proudly served in the US Army at Ft. Hood, Tx. He worked at Sun-Maid Growers in Kingsburg, CA for 40 years with the final 30 as an IAM union machinist. He retired in 2018 and moved to Chino Valley, AZ with his wife Alice.

He loved riding and training horses. He took pride in constantly learning new horsemanship skills. He loved pack trips into the Sierra backcountry with friends, including many trail cleaning work trips with the Backcountry Horsemen of California. Mark was always busy with household improvement projects and trying to make things better for others. He enjoyed creating metalwork projects that he shared with many. He loved spending time with close family and friends, and when out and about in the community he never met a stranger. He loved traveling throughout the United States and Canada in recent years.

Mark was preceded in death by his parents and his brother Gary. He is survived by his wife Alice, brother Les, numerous beloved family and friends, cousins, nieces, nephews and great-nieces and nephews.

BACKCOUNTRY HORSEMEN OF CALIFORNIA

HIGH COUNTRY MANNERS

A COMMON SENSE GUIDE FOR GENTLE USE OF THE BACKCOUNTRY

TRAILHEAD MANNERS

- Leave your vehicle parked with other visitors able to exit, park, load and unload around you.
- Be sure to lock your vehicle doors, camper shells and tool boxes.
- Clean up all food scraps. Bears will break into your vehicle, if they suspect it contains food.
- Do your part in keeping the trailhead clean and accessible to others. Bring a rake and shovel.
- Use proper sanitary facilities at the trailhead.

TRAIL MANNERS

- Be polite and helpful when meeting livestock, backpackers, hikers, and other users of the wilderness.
- Always yield the trail to faster hikers or riders. Move aside as soon as you can and let them go on ahead.
- Common sense and courtesy should prevail in matters of right-of-way on the trail. In most cases, riders and pack animals do have the right-of-way. Those traveling uphill have the right-of-way over those going downhill.
- To ease possible congestion, avoid stopping in the trail at a creek or trail junction. Move to the next available place to pull out and get completely off the trail.
- Loose herded livestock are difficult to control and, in many places, illegal. It is wise to lead all your animals to minimize the chance for trail conflicts.
- Remove obstacles from trails whenever possible rather than riding around them, as this creates a secondary trail.
- Stay on the trail. Cutting switchbacks creates erosion.
- Explain to those not accustomed to stock that a hiker can control his/her movements on and off the trail easier than a rider can control the movements of a string of pack animals.
- Some horses and mules can be skittish while on the trail, therefore, it is wise to give them some room.
- Explain to those not accustomed to stock, that it is safer for you, them and the resource, to step to the downhill side of the trail and to stay in sight. Be sure the person feels safe before you start to pass.

- Explain to hikers that it would be helpful to speak in a calm voice to the animals as they pass, thus assuring the stock that the colorful hiker is not a bear. Remind them not to touch the animals as they go by and to please wait a few seconds before starting along the trail.
- Leaving any equipment in the middle of the trail, near a water crossing or bridge is like leaving your suitcase in the middle of the highway. Your equipment may get run over.
- Dogs can be good companions where permitted on the trail. Dogs not familiar with livestock can be intimidated and scare the stock. Remember to keep dogs under control at all times so they are not a threat to the safety of other visitors or to wildlife.
- An "encounter" session with local llamas and their handlers before you enter the backcountry might be worthwhile.

CAMP MANNERS

- Set up camp on hard ground away from grass and marsh areas where you and your stock will appreciate being away from mosquitoes. Be sure the location is at least 100 feet from any water source.
- Proper sanitation practices are very important. Choose a site at least 100 feet away from any water source or campsite. Use a shovel or trowel to bury human waste.
- Choose a campsite that has plenty of feed or pack in pellets and grain.
- If you need to restrain the stock, tie to a high line located on durable ground, 100 feet away from any water source, and out of sight of other camps and trails.
- The use of a portable electric fence is encouraged as it is an excellent way to control grazing pack and saddle stock. It is important to train them to respect the wire or tape prior to setting up in the backcountry. Move the fence often to avoid excessive impact on the meadow.
- Use only dead and downed firewood for fuel. Conserve wood by using a propane or gas stove for cooking.
- Pack out all garbage and trash. This means food scraps too. Remember foil does not burn.
- Remove, scatter or bury all manure in the campsite and at the trailhead.

PROPER PREPARATION

One of the most important aspects to consider when planning any trip is proper planning and preparation. This is especially true of backcountry trips. Try to be prepared for any eventuality.

- Consider the goals and needs of the group: scenery, lakes, fishing, moving camp, ages and experiences, etc.
- Know where you are going. Ask those who have been there before. Know how long it will take you to get to your destination each day of your trip.
- Know what maps you will need, study them and know how to use them. Have a compass along.
- Find out if you need to have a wilderness and/or campfire permit. Ask if there are any restricted areas you will be going through.
- Find out if you stay overnight at the trailhead. Learn what facilities are available: corrals, water, one night stay limit, manure dumps, etc.
- Know how many people are in your group and what kind of appetites/restrictions they may have.
- Determine if there is enough feed, water and proper campsite for each day's destination.
- Have first-aid kits for both people and animals, directions for use and a flashlight.
- Have at least one emergency light-weight meal along for the group.
- Be sure to have the appropriate clothing and equipment for the season.
- Have "strike anywhere matches" or a lighter in water-proof containers.

A MESSAGE TO HORSEMEN FROM YOUR FOREST SERVICE

Horses, Mules, Burros and Llamas too!

- Take only the minimum number of animals needed.
- During short stops, you may tie horses to trees which are at least eight inches in diameter.
- For long periods, tie horses to a high-line stretched between two sturdy trees. A good rule of thumb is 7 feet away from tree and 7 feet high.
- If you picket horses, move them often.
- Keep tied, picketed, and hobbled horses well away from camp, lakes and streams.
- Tie, picket, or hobble horses only in dry areas to minimize trampling.

WHO ARE THE BACKCOUNTRY HORSEMEN OF CALIFORNIA?

Backcountry Horsemen of California is a group of dedicated men and women working to preserve the historic use of trails with recreational pack and saddle stock. They perform public service activities for numerous land management agencies and they are continually working to educate their members on how to be "Gentle Users."

The use of livestock has played an important role in the American culture. California and the western states have particularly had a long tradition of using pack and saddle stock in the backcountry. The Backcountry Horsemen of California carry on this tradition in modern times. With this use comes the responsibility and obligation to care for our public lands and to ensure their use for generations.

Backcountry Horsemen of California works in cooperation with government agencies to help clear trails, maintain historic sites, construct new facilities, sponsor educational seminars and clinics, and assist with service projects as requested. They also strive to stay current on relevant issues and to provide input on management plans and activities that pertain to backcountry trails on public lands.

Backcountry Horsemen of California focuses its efforts in three key areas:

- Service Projects
- Education
- Public Lands Issues.
